CitiScape Property Management Group Managers Earn National Recognition

SAN FRANCISCO, CA (December 7, 2012) CitiScape Property Management Group, recognized as one of the top full-service property management companies in the Bay Area, is proud to announce that two of its own have earned national recognition.

“Manager of the Year” is a national contest for both Portfolio and On-Site Property Managers of Homeowner Association-governed communities sponsored by Association Reserves, Inc and other industry organizations. The purpose of the contest is to inspire excellence and professionalism by recognizing and rewarding the best Managers in the nation. Honors were awarded in two categories, Top Portfolio Manager and Top On-Site Manager.

Given their incredible work and dedication, it is no surprise that CitiScape’s Nick Berg and Davina Poole were both ranked one of the top 50 Property Managers in the United States:

Kevin Wiley, co-founder and President of CitiScape, exclaimed “Both Nick and Davina deserve this recognition from their industry peers, and the entire CitiScape team salutes their efforts to raise the bar for service in our industry”.

Nick and Davina issued a joint statement which read “Davina and I are deeply honored to be selected as top 100 Finalists in the “Manager of the Year” contest. We are grateful to our colleagues at CitiScape Property Management for their outstanding support and organization. We’d also like to thank our homeowner association clients for entrusting us to serve as their community managers.”
